

CONGRESS PASSED
BONUS BILL OVER
PRESIDENT'S VETO

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Congress today opened the Treasury to increased loans to World War veterans over the objection of President Hoover.

The veterans loan relief bill became law when the Senate voted 76 to 17 to disregard the presidential veto after arduous debate which brought demonstrations from the crowded galleries. By a similar decisive margin, the House yesterday overrode the "no" of Mr. Hoover.

The legislation allows the veterans to borrow up to half the face value of their compensation certificates which were allowed by Congress seven years ago over the veto of President Coolidge.

Interest Is 4 1/2 Per Cent. The average loan available to the former service men will be $600. Interest of 4 1/2 per cent is charged. While the President feared the Treasury would be called upon for $1,000,000,000 by the legislation, others who feared a demand would not amount to much over half that amount.

A little later President Hoover announced he had issued orders to the Veterans Bureau to give complete priority to veterans in need in administering the loans.

"Though I have been opposed to the bonus bill," the President said, "now that it has passed, we propose to facilitate its working in every way."

The Senate gave slight heed to the objections of the President in the three-hour debate preceding the roll call. However, a heated discussion of the merits of the measure several times brought roars and hisses from the galleries where advocates were hotly in a majority.

More Republicans voted today to override Mr. Hoover's veto than originally supported the measure, 36 rising up behind it today as against 34, on its first passage. Only Senator Watson of Indiana, the Republican leader, changed his vote in response to the veto.

The bill passed the Senate previously 72 to 12. Some of the absentees on that vote were present today. Democrats, with one exception, voted solidly against the measure, Senator King (D), Utah, joining the 16 Republicans supporting the President.

It was the second time this Congress has trampled over the presidential veto by a vote of 72 to 12. The ceremony was held by Mr. Hoover. A year ago his veto of the measure increasing pensions for Spanish War veterans was overruled.

It was emphasized at the Veterans' Bureau that the law limiting loans to veterans who have held their insurance certificates for two years or more would be considered as still in effect.

HOW TO GET BONUS LOANS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Here's what a veteran has to do to borrow half the face value of his military compensation certificate.

If he has obtained a loan, he may present in person or mail to one of the 54 regional offices the record of it and the application for more.

Those who have not received loans must mail to the office to present a certified note to that effect along with discharge papers and the certificate. Notes can be obtained from the regional offices and veterans' organizations.

From there on, the loan is in the hands of the veterans' bureau, which hereafter has issued loans within ten days of receiving applications and hopes to continue issuing at about the same rate.

Regional offices are in: Atlanta, Birmingham, Charlotte, N. C., Columbia, S. C., Little Rock, Nashville, New Orleans and Richmond.

ELBA HAD BIGGEST
POULTRY SALE DAY
IN ALL ITS HISTORY

Coffee County farmers during three days last week received a total of $7,519.70 through cooperative sales held under the supervision of the County Farm Bureau.

Poultry sales were held at Elba Tuesday, New Brockton Wednesday and Enterprise Thursday. Two full car loads of poultry, weighing 36,000 pounds, were bought and shipped to New York buyers. Farmers participating in these sales received a total of $19,419.70 for their chickens and other poultry.

At Elba it was the largest sale in the history of the cooperative enterprise. One full car was loaded at Elba, and many farmers had to carry their flocks back home on account of over-crowding the car.

These cooperative sales were started in the county about two years ago, and have always been fairly successful.

According to W. M. Key, county agent, the past week's sales were the largest ever held in the county, and are due to the low price of eggs and scarcity of stock at present.

The cooperative hog sale held at Elba last Wednesday brought the farmers $2,100.00. The price was the cheapest of the year, however, 238 head, weighing a total of 39,000 pounds, were sold for shipment to Swift & Company of Moultrie, Georgia.

Another poultry car will probably be stationed in the county this latter part of March. The next hog sale will be held in Enterprise next Tuesday, March 10th.

THE ELBA CLIPPER

Another Auto Crash
At Danley's X Roads

The corner at Danley's Cross Roads was the scene of another auto crash about seven o'clock last Saturday night.

An automobile and truck came together with considerable damage to both, but fortunately, none of the occupants were seriously injured. Both machines, it is reported, were brought to Elba for repairs.

This corner has had more than its quota of wrecks recently and it has been suggested that something should be done to make the curve at that point safer.

Prof. J. C. Dixon informs a representative of The Elba Clipper that the financial status of the Elba schools has reached a point where it is absolutely necessary for all those who have not paid their tuition to do so. Otherwise, the schools cannot continue.

Prof. Dixon, as a result of a meeting of the school board, held Tuesday, is sending out questionnaires seeking information regarding the ability of the delinquents to pay.

Hoover Vetoes Shoals Bill;
Planting Crops

WASHINGTON, March 3.—President Hoover and the Senate combined today in the closing hours of the seventy-first congress to pass on to future congresses the bill to plant cotton in the city school auditorium Tuesday night March 10, under the auspices of the Methodist Missionary Society.

In this attractive show about 100 local amateur performers arrayed in colorful costumes will appear. In their enjoy intense excitement, jolly dialogue, snappy songs and dancing besides the stately, most darling children you ever saw, don't miss this modern musical comedy.

Col. Charles Lindbergh in the person of Halilane Smith heads the list of horses. Midge Page is the old Dream Man who lives in an air castle, sells dreams and in a mysterious manner makes them come true.

Lois Martin, as Smartie Smith, the village terror, is chief comedian. She is worth the price of the whole show.

Another unusual feature is the "Dance of the Rainbow," which is a lovely moonlit vision among the clouds.

Perhaps the most entertaining number will be "The Midnight Follies," with a miniature stage manager and his dancers.

Last and most important is the original "Jazzification" of Elba. In this unique feature the most talented and attractive girls in Elba will appear each in an original stilt representing one of the outstanding business firms of Elba. These girls will also work for votes for their ticket in a most interesting contest.

Be sure to buy your ticket from your favorite and put it in her box to help her win the lovely prize. Remember to see "It Happened At Midnight" at the school auditorium, Tuesday night, March 10, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission will be 15c and 35c.

As a result of campaign threats to the winter asking farmers to reduce cotton acreage and to plant more food and feed crops, Auburn farmers expect they expected to see an increase in the corn acreage this year and a reduction in cotton.

Last year Alabama farmers planted 3,601,000 acres in cotton, 2,510,000 acres in corn, 666,000 acres in hay and 387,000 acres in peanuts.

Alabama experts declared that at least three times the acreage in hay would not be too big for this year.

Figures received here from all parts of the state indicate that approximately 1,000,000 bushels of corn are being planted in Alabama each week. Last year 10,000,000 bushels were raised in Alabama, but extension department experts declared that they looked for a slight reduction in these figures for 1931.

Bank Bandit Shot Down By posse

ALICEVILLE, Ala., March 2.—A man identified as a barber who formerly worked here, held up and robbed the Peoples Bank of $2,000 today, and a few minutes later was brought down with shot fired by possemen after a five mile chase.

Robert Pope, cashier, who was alone in the bank at the time of the robbery, said he recognized the man as a barber by the name of White who until recently worked in a hair here.

His condition tonight was said to be serious.

Pope said the man entered the office of the bank striding and opened his gun with a draw pistol and ordered him to get all the silver out of the vault, picked up a bag of currency and ran from the building, entering an automobile parked at the curb.

The alarm spread quickly and every available automobile in town was commandeered by possemen who chased the bank robber.

Marshall B. B. Salmond, the fleeing automobile soon was overtaken and fired upon. In attempting to pass a lumber truck the machine was derailed.

The man took to his heels, and after running a short distance fell beneath the fire of a dozen rifles, shotguns and pistols. A charge of buckshot entered the back of his head and body. The money was recovered and the man was brought back by the possemen.

ALA. FARMERS ARE
PLANTING CROPS
EARLY THIS YEAR

AUBURN, Ala., March 2.—South Alabama farmers will be planting their major crops this month, with farm work throughout the state approximately thirty days ahead of normal.

Experts of the Alabama Polytechnic Institute extension staff in their weekly review of Alabama farm conditions, said that South Alabama will see the planting of cotton and corn with the beginning of the first month of spring.

The vote to override the bill in the objection of President Hoover that it would put the government into business competition with its citizens was a clear majority of the senate, but far short of the two-thirds required.

Several hours of debate before packed galleries preceded the roll call which was reached at 10:25 p.m. Senator Black of Alabama and other Southern Democrats contended Hoover had violated his campaign pledges by voting the bill, and Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, author of the measure, said the president was "with the power trust."

Senator Glenn, Republican, Illinois, the only senator to raise his voice in support of the president, denied Mr. Hoover had violated his campaign promises and praised his "courage" for voting the bill.

Friends of the legislation said the president's veto had thrown the issue into the next presidential campaign and Glenn said he accepted the challenge on behalf of the Republican party.

The debate drew the biggest crowd the senate galleries have held this session, with long lines of men and women waiting their turn to get in.

Secretary Hurley was on the senate floor during much of the debate, together with several senators-elect, whose terms begin tomorrow. Members of the house crowded the rear of the senate chamber.

Sixteen Republicans combined with 32 Democrats and one Farmer-Laborite in voting to pass the bill over the president's veto.

Three Democrats lined up with 21 Republicans in support of the president.

Attorney Brunson Injured By Rope Attached To Bull

Attorney W. M. Brunson, who is also an extensive farmer and stock raiser, is hobbling about a cane as a result of becoming tangled up in a rope, one end of which was attached to his fine Hereford bull. Mr. Brunson was dragged and thrown against a door post, breaking several ribs and otherwise bruising and shaking him up. However, he is a great optimist and consoles himself in the knowledge that he owns a magnificent specimen of the bovine family and promises that in future he will be careful not to rob the Peoples Bank of $2,000 today, and a few minutes later was brought down with shot fired by possemen after a five mile chase.

Robert Pope, cashier, who was alone in the bank at the time of the robbery, said he recognized the man as a barber by the name of White who until recently worked in a hair here.
